Our guest evangelist this year is Reverend Eekie Lancaster. He and his wife of 52 years, Shirley, have retired to the White Oak community in Bladen County. Their three children and 4 grandsons live there also, so they attend a lot of ball games. Eekie serves as President of the local high school's booster club and heads the NC Special Olympics chapter there. His family also owns and operates a restaurant. Reverend Lancaster served 40 years in the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church. During that time he served four congregations and as the District Superintendent in both the Elizabeth City and Wilmington Districts. On the Conference level he has served in the following ministry areas: stewardship, camping, evangelism, and the Conference Home for Children. Most of all he is an inspiring preacher of God's Word, so come and join us!
